Questions listed for this sitting: -

2241. Ms A.J.G. MacTiernan to the Minister for Education

In relation to the National Partnership Agreement on Low Socio-Economic Status School Communities announced in late 2009:

- (a) which schools did the Education Department ask to be added to the Federal list which was based on the Index of Relative Socio-Economic Disadvantage (SEI);
- (b) did the Minister advise the Australian Government that the additional schools warranted inclusion because their low SEI score identified them for priority attention;
- (c) how does the Minister explain that some schools were by-passed for funding while schools with a considerably higher SEI were included in the State's list;
- (d) who was responsible for the ultimate approval of the list; and
- (e) was the Minister consulted about the compilation of the list?

2242. Mr M. McGowan to the Minister for Housing and Works

- (1) For each of the past five financial years, has any Keystart client had a mortgage foreclosed, resulting in the loss of the client's home, as a consequence of defaulting on loan repayments; and
  - (a) if yes, how many Keystart loans have been foreclosed for each of the past five financial years?
- (2) Have any Keystart loans been foreclosed between 1 July 2009 and 23 February 2010; and
  - (a) if so, how many?
- (3) Does Keystart retain information regarding the number of requests for modifications to mortgage repayments due to clients' changing financial circumstances?
- (4) If yes to (3), how many requests were received for mortgage modifications for each of the past five financial years?
- (5) If yes to (3), how many requests were received for mortgage modifications between 1 July 2009 and 23 February 2010?

2243. Ms L.L. Baker to the Minister for Education

In relation to the Department of Education's employment of school psychologists, I ask the Minister:

- (a) does the Department of Education have a formula indicating the number of school psychologists that should be allocated to each metropolitan district on the basis of student numbers within that district; and

- (i) if yes, what is that formula;
- (b) is it accurate to say that there was until recently in place a formula for the allocation of Full Time Equivalent (FTE) school psychologist positions to each metropolitan district on the basis of student numbers whereby there was a notional allocation of one school psychologist for every 2,000 students; and
- (c) what is the current ratio of FTEs for school psychologists per student numbers in each education district across Western Australia?
