NON-GOVERNMENT BUSINESS

1. Regional Transport and Infrastructure

Hon Colin Tincknell to move —

That this House —

- (1) recognises that regional towns and land areas of Western Australia are an amazingly diverse, culturally rich and economically significant powerhouse of Western Australia, which are not given the attention or funding they deserve. This is particularly true of the regional transport and rail networks and infrastructure required to service such an important part of our State; and
- (2) calls on the Government to acknowledge that this must be addressed through strategic planning that better includes regional requirements.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' BUSINESS

1. Impacts of Increasing Automation on Society

Hon Matthew Swinbourn to move —

That this House notes that the trend of increasing automation is impacting people, their employment security, their opportunities and the broader society in which they live.
