NON-GOVERNMENT BUSINESS

1. Core Services

Hon Sue Ellery to move —

That this Council condemns the Barnett Government for failing to adequately provide core services, including those identified in the Auditor General's 'Second Public Sector Performance Report', in favour of big projects around the Perth CBD.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' BUSINESS

1. Palliative care

Hon Nick Goiran to move —

That this Council —

- (a) congratulates the State Government for its commitment to expand palliative care services throughout Western Australia, especially through the additional funding of $14 million provided through the Palliative Care Services Fund from 2009-2012 for projects including establishing —
 - (i) rural palliative care across seven Western Australian Country Health Service regions;
 - (ii) two mobile specialist palliative care consultancy teams in the metropolitan area; and
 - (iii) a Statewide paediatrics palliative care program under the auspices of Princess Margaret Hospital;
- (b) noting that Dignity Therapy is a psychological tool which helps health care providers to affirm the personhood and dignity of the patient and costs about $500 per patient, calls on the State Government to consider ways of ensuring that the funding of palliative care in Western Australia includes funding for dignity therapy;
- (c) encourages the State Government to continue to expand its support for palliative care to ensure that —
 - (iv) palliative care is given higher priority in educational programs, including continuing education programs, for doctors, nurses and other health professionals;
 - (v) palliative care is better integrated as an essential part of all health services throughout Western Australia; and
 - (vi) appropriate palliative care is available for persons with chronic diseases as well as those with cancer and other terminal conditions.
