NON-GOVERNMENT BUSINESS

1. Regional and Rural Palliative Care

Hon Jim Chown to move —

That this House —

- (a) expresses concern for the lack of ongoing funding for regional and rural palliative care health professionals;
- (b) notes that increased funding is needed generally but in particular to help train and equip health professionals with the necessary skills to deliver modern palliative care to regional and remote patients; and
- (c) further notes that the Joint Select Committee on End of Life Choices is presently inquiring into the role of palliative care in our State and calls on it to inquire into this current need for more regional and rural palliative care funding.
