NON-GOVERNMENT BUSINESS

1. Homophobic bullying

Hon Lynn MacLaren to move -

That this Council calls upon the Minister for Education to -

- (1) Confirm that both she and the Department of Education have a duty of care to protect all students from bullying and discrimination in schools.
- (2) Acknowledge that homophobic bullying is common in Western Australian schools and the absence of specific anti-homophobia policies is a failure of that duty of care.
- (3) Introduce policies and practises that protect all students against homophobia at school.

2. Water management practices

Hon Alison Xamon to move -

That this Council condemn the Government for failing to act with the appropriate urgency to institute water management practices that reflect our changing climate and our forecast increasing demand for water and calls upon the Government to actively monitor and enforce licencing conditions through -

- (a) applying conditions to water licences in accordance with Department of Water policy;
- (b) monitoring compliance with those conditions; and
- (c) engaging in genuine enforcement actions where conditions have been breached.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' BUSINESS

1. Retail trading hours

Hon Max Trenorden to move -

That this Council does not support the extension of retail trading hours until there is a legislative and regulatory framework in place which supports and encourages a fairer marketplace, enabling small business to be competitive.
