Questions listed for this sitting: -

1989. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) how many hectares of land in Western Australia are in conservation reserves;
- (b) how many hectares of land in Western Australia are in conservation reserves recognised as meeting the standards of the International Union for Conservation and Nature categories I to IV; and
- (c) how much money does the State Government contribute annually to the preservation and maintenance of conservation reserves?

1990. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) how many performance reviews of the Department of Parks and Wildlife's and its predecessor's management of conservation reserves have been undertaken in the past five years by the Conservation Commission; and
- (b) list the reviews undertaken and the results with regard to compliance with the relevant management plans?

1991. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) with regard to the Mangles Bay Marina proposal, why did the Conservation Commission of Western Australia advise the Appeals Convenor in May 2013 that it had changed its position on the canal estate proposal at Mangles Bay Marina;
- (b) the Commission said that “on reflection” it wished to withdraw its appeals against the project, what reasons were given for the change of position;
- (c) did the Minister or any of his staff have any contact with the Commission with regard to its appeals against the proposal; and
- (d) why did the Commission not make public the reasons for its changed position?

1992. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) what was the rate of staff absenteeism in the Conservation Commission in 2012–2013;
- (b) how many officers in the agency have been granted study leave in the past twelve months and for what total amount of time;
- (c) have there been any reported instances of theft, fraud or corruption by staff since 1 July 2012, and if so, how many and what were the circumstances;
- (d) how many complaints of sexual harassment, bullying or intimidation have been lodged by staff since 1 July 2012; and
- (e) as at 1 July 2013 how many full-time equivalent positions were not filled?

1993. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) has the Minister met with the members and/or Chairman of the Conservation Commission, and if so, how many times;
- (b) what is the level of remuneration paid to the Chairman;
- (c) what level of remuneration is paid to board members;
- (d) since 1 July 2012 how many times have senior executives travelled for business purposes, to where and at what cost; and
- (e) have board members travelled on Commission business in the past three years and, if so, to where, and at what cost?

1994. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) does the Commission believe that Forest Management Plans of 10 years’ duration are too short to allow for long term investment planning for the timber industry, particularly if substantial loan financing is required; and
- (b) has the Commission considered advising the Minister to amend the Conservation and Land Management Act 1984 and the Forest Products Act 2000 to vary the length of management plans and production contracts?

1995. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) what percentage of Banksia woodland surrounding the Perth metropolitan area has been lost because of climate change in the past decade;

- (b) what percentage of tuart woodland has collapsed because of climate change in the past decade;
- (c) have exotic pine plantations collapsed because of changing climatic conditions;
- (d) what is the area of exotic pine plantations that have collapsed;
- (e) how much of the exotic pine plantation to the north of Perth have been destroyed because of climate change in the past decade;
- (f) in the northern jarrah forest, how many hectares of forest have collapsed;
- (g) how much have jarrah mortality rates increased in the past decade;
- (h) what has been the effect of these sudden and dramatic shifts in vegetation health, structure and function on associated flora and fauna, including many critically and endangered species, and how is the Commission addressing these problems; and
- (i) with Banksia and pine food resources becoming scarce, what impact is this having on the Carnaby's Black Cockatoo population in the Greater Perth Region and what is the Commission doing to address this problem?

1996. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask, are mortality rates increasing in tuart, wandoo, flooded gum, marri, jarrah and Western Australian peppermint as a result of changing climate conditions and if so, how is this being addressed?

1997. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) are climatic changes in the South West of Western Australia contributing to deteriorating woodland and forest health;
- (b) has there been an unprecedented, climate-driven forest collapses in Western Australia in the past thirty years, and if so, does the proposed Forest Management Plan 2014–2023 address this loss of forest;
- (c) is it correct that groundwater levels have fallen up to 11 meters in some forested areas;
- (d) what is the average decline in groundwater levels in South West forests;
- (e) to what extent have soil water reserves dried out and are they likely to continue to do so;
- (f) what are the implications of this decline in soil water reserves; and
- (g) is this increasing insect infestations and fungal diseases and if yes what steps has the Commission taken to improve this situation?

1998. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) what is the status of the Conservation Commission's intention to amend the Conservation and Land Management Act 1984 to create a statutory duty for the Commission to provide advice to the Minister for Environment, and for its tabling in Parliament; and
- (b) does the Minister support such an amendment?

1999. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

- (1) Has there been full and proper consultation with the Noongar community regarding the proposed Forest Management Plan 2014–2023?
- (2) What consultation has occurred, where and when?

2000. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) under the current Forest Management Plan what percentage of karri was used as sawlogs and what percentage ends up as woodchips, sawdust and other low grade products;
- (b) what percentage of jarrah is available for sawlogs what percentage ended up as firewood, charcoal or sawdust; and
- (c) does the draft Forest Management Plan 2014–2023 support a continuation of a ‘low value’ industry?

2001. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) has the Forest Products Commission been operating in the absence of finalised operational logging planning guidance material; and
- (b) if yes to (a), what is the Commission proposing to do to rectify this situation in the new Forest Management Plan 2014–2023?

2002. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask, does the proposed Forest Management Plan 2014–2023 propose to make the fauna provisions of the Western Australia Wildlife Conservation Act apply to state government agencies and their contractors, and if not, why not?

2003. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) during the current Forest Management Plan is it correct that the Department of Environment Conservation (DEC) has been in continual non-compliance as a result of its failure to develop on time or at all the range of subsidiary management documents required by the current plan;
- (b) over the course of the existing Forest Management Plan has there been serious ‘on-ground’ compliance breaches documented by the DEC;
- (c) if yes (b), how many and what action was taken to stop the breaches; and
- (d) if there have been ‘on ground’ breaches, has there been a failure on the part of the Forrest Products Commission to enforce the provisions in commercial contracts with logging operators?

2004. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) will the proposed Forest Management Plan 2014–2023 allow up to a doubling of the current average area of native forest to be logged;
- (b) will the proposed Forest Management Plan 2014–2023 decrease the habitat for threatened species and bring them closer to extinction;
- (c) will the proposed Forest Management Plan 2014–2023 increase the number of corridors for fauna movement;
- (d) will the Minister guarantee that South West forests will not be exempt from Commonwealth Government assessment of the plan and its impacts on EPBC-listed threatened species, and if not, why not;
- (e) will the proposed Forest Management Plan 2014–2023 reduce the total area of Fauna Habitat Zones, and if not, why not;

- (f) has the proposed Forest Management Plan 2014–2023 included a detailed management plan to address the problem of Phytophthora dieback; and
- (g) does the proposed Forest Management Plan 2014–2023 propose to allow new mining operations in south-west forests?

2005. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Conservation Commission, I ask:

- (a) has the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) recommended amendments to Forest Management Plans and other relevant legislation to establish appropriate enforcement and compliance powers for regulating the timber industry in Western Australia; and
- (b) has the Conservation Commission recommended legislative changes in line with the EPA's recommendation to establish appropriate enforcement and compliance powers, and if not, why not?

- (e) what percentage of criminal cases brought before the courts failed in a successful conviction due to insufficient evidence in each of 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014?

2125. Ms M.M. Quirk to the Parliamentary Secretary representing the Minister for Child Protection:

I refer to the Department of Child Protection's three strikes policy for anti-social behaviour, and ask:

- (a) can the Minister advise whether advice is given to the Department if eviction is contemplated and children reside at the premises; and
- (b) if yes, at what stage does that occur?

2126. Ms M.M. Quirk to the Minister for Housing:

I refer to the Department of Housing's policy to evict after three strikes for anti-social behaviour, and I ask:

- (a) does the Department of Housing notify the Department of Child Protection where children reside at the premises;
- (b) if yes, at what stage does that notification occur; and
- (c) if yes, upon receipt of such advice what action does the Department of Child Protection take?

2127. Ms S.F. McGurk to the Minister for Transport:

- (1) Are there plans to build a sub-station capacity on the Fremantle rail line so that scheduled or unscheduled interruptions which occur on part of the line does not result in whole line closures?
- (2) Is there a budget allocation for that work, and what is it?
- (3) If the work is planned, when is it scheduled to commence?
