 - (b) December 2008;
 - (c) January 2009;
 - (d) February 2009; and
 - (e) March 2009?
 - (2) Why are there no publicly available figures for patronage on individual rail lines?
 - (3) When was the decision first made by Main Roads and/or the Public Transport Authority that the Mandurah rail between Rockingham and Mandurah would close for four weekends in January and February 2010?
 - (4) When was the decision first advertised?
 - (5) In what forums did that advertising take place?
2101. Mr M.P. Murray to the Minister for Education
- (1) How many school-aged and pre-school-aged children were assessed for an intellectual disability by Schools Plus in 2009:
 - (a) how many of these children were classified as having an intellectual disability; and
 - (b) how many of these children have been deemed not to have an intellectual disability?
 - (2) In 2009, how many students over eight years old and settled in school did Schools Plus deem not to be intellectually disabled as a result of further testing they had ordered, when the first test was deemed to be valid?

2102. Mr M.P. Murray to the Minister for Education

- (1) How does the Education Department determine if a child has an intellectual disability?
- (2) What role does the Disability Services Commission have in working with the Department of Education and Training to determine if a child has an intellectual disability?
- (3) What role does Schools Plus have in the determination of a child with an intellectual disability?
- (4) Does Schools Plus engage in its own testing to determine if a child has an intellectual disability; and
 - (a) if so, is it true that children will have to undergo testing twice (once from the Disability Services Commission and again by the Education Department)?
- (5) How does the Education Department determine if an intellectually disabled child requires specialised aide time?
- (6) How does the Education Department determine if an intellectually disabled child requires specialised classes?

2103. Mr M.P. Murray to the Parliamentary Secretary representing the Minister for Disability Services

- (1) What steps does the Disability Services Commission take to make a diagnosis that a child has an intellectual disability?
- (2) How many tests are required to be undertaken to make a diagnosis that a child has an intellectual disability?
- (3) How does the Disability Services Commission inform parents and the child of the outcomes of these tests and if they accepted or rejected a claim of intellectual disability?
- (4) Does the Disability Services Commission use a phrase 'must present clinically as intellectually disabled' in its letters to families informing them of intellectual disabilities; and
 - (a) if so, what does this phrase mean?
- (5) Does the Disability Services Commission explain in writing on what grounds and why an application for intellectual disability is rejected?

2104. Mr M.P. Murray to the Parliamentary Secretary representing the Minister for Disability Services

2105. Mr J.N. Hyde to the Minister for Culture and the Arts

I refer to the suspension and review of the Premier's Book Awards and ask:

- (a) has the review of the Awards been completed; and
 - (i) if so, when will the findings of the review be made public;
- (b) if the Awards are to continue, will they include the same categories as previously, and will all prizes, including the History Award, be funded by the Government; and

- (c) when will advertising commence for entries for the 2008 and 2009 Awards?

2106. Mr M.P. Murray to the Minister representing the Minister for Mines and Petroleum

Following the State Government's announcement of an increase in the number of Mines Safety Inspectors, I ask:

- (a) how many Department of Mines and Petroleum Inspectors are currently located at the Collie office;
- (b) what is the minimum number of these inspectors that have been employed at the Collie office during 2007, 2008 and 2009;
- (c) in 2009 how many hours in total have been worked by these Inspectors in the coalfields and associated industries in the Shire of Collie;
- (d) in total how many hours have been worked by these Inspectors in areas outside the Shire of Collie; and
- (e) what is the budgeted number of hours for Department of Mining and Petroleum Inspectors permanently located at the Collie office in 2010?

2107. Mr M.P. Murray to the Minister for Emergency Services

- (1) Is the Minister aware that residents and emergency workers in the areas of Noggerup, Lowden and Mumballup in the electorate of Collie-Preston have had recent experiences of poor fire emergency communications?
- (2) Is the Minister aware that the only available communication for the Fire and Emergency Services Authority (FESA) and the Western Australia Police was at the local hotel?
- (3) Is the Minister aware that these areas are poorly serviced by mobile phone and emergency communications coverage?
- (4) What does the Minister intend to do to remedy this situation?
- (5) When can the residents expect this situation to be remedied?
- (6) Will the Minister instruct FESA to provide these residents with an emergency number to seek information in the interim?
- (7) Is it the Minister's intention to improve mobile phone coverage to these areas; and
 - (a) if so, when can this be expected to occur?
- (8) What will the Minister do to assist the FESA workers in these areas to have reliable means of communication?
- (9) Will the Western Australia Police have access to the same lines of communication?

2108. Mr M. McGowan to the Minister for Housing and Works

- (1) Would the Minister advise the total number of vacant Homeswest houses across Western Australia as of 20 February 2010 and the reasons for their vacancy?
- (2) Would the Minister advise the length of time each house has remained vacant as of 20 February 2010?
- (3) Would the Minister advise the total number of vacant Homeswest houses per Homeswest district as of 20 February 2010?
- (4) How many vacant lots across Western Australia does Homeswest own as of 20 February 2010?

2239. Mr P.B. Watson to the Minister for Water

In relation to the discharge of treated wastewater from Albany Tree Farm No. 1 into Seven Mile Creek, I ask:

- (a) what water quality monitoring was done following this discharge;
- (b) what levels of total nitrogen, total phosphorus and E.Coli were present in the discharge;
- (c) what levels of total nitrogen, total phosphorus and E.Coli were present at the Gunn Road gauging station following the discharge;
- (d) has any water quality monitoring been done following the discharge, and if so when was it done and what are the detailed results;
- (e) on 4 September 2009, a written application was made to the Director General of the Department of Environment and Conservation for a permit to discharge. What approval was given for the discharge;
- (f) when was this approval granted;
- (g) was the approval notified by verbal or written communication;
- (h) who granted the approval; and
- (i) what was the process undertaken to approve or deny the application?

2240. Mr P.B. Watson to the Minister for Water

In relation to the purchase of Swarbrick's farm as an expansion site for Albany Tree Farm No.1, I ask:

- (a) what hydrological or other testing was done, and by whom, prior to the purchase of the property in 2007;
- (b) why was hydrological testing done in 2009;

- (c) the property was purchased as for a waste-water treatment tree farm expansion site, yet now it has been identified as a potential groundwater source for Albany. What process was undertaken to determine the suitability of the property as an expansion site and who approved the purchase;
- (d) was this the only option studied to cater for the expansion of the tree farm and the increased wastewater inflow, or were there others; and
 - (i) if so, what were they;
- (e) what planning is currently being done to cater for any expansion, or increased capacity, of the tree farm; and
- (f) given that the Water Corporation stated in 2004 that the Albany Tree Farm No. 1 would reach hydrological capacity by 2008, why was it not until 2006 that planning started to deal with the increased wastewater inflow?
