ESTIMATES AND FINANCIAL OPERATIONS COMMITTEE

Department of Education

Hon Sue Ellery asked:

1) I refer to the Strategic Plan for WA Public Schools 2016 -2020 and ask in respect to Priority 1: Success for All Students what is the baseline the Department will rely on to measure success for each of the elements of the system performance information listed on page 5 of the document?

Answer: Information from 2015 will be used as the baseline for each of the elements of system performance, except for two elements for which 2015 data are either not available or not directly comparable to later years' data:

1. Due to changes to the requirements for achieving the Western Australian Certificate of Education (WACE) from 2016, it will not be appropriate to use 2015 or earlier years' data as a baseline for the element: 'Percentage of Year 8 cohort (Year 7 in the future) awarded the WA Certificate of Education on completion of Year 12'. Data for 2016 will be used as the baseline.

2. Survey completion rates were not sufficient for 2014 or 2015 data to be reliably used as the baseline for the element: 'Extent to which parents, students and staff are satisfied with the management of student behaviour'. As data for this element were not collected prior to 2014, it is expected that 2016 data will be used as the baseline.

2) Since the preparation of the 2013 Building Condition Assessment Report, please provide a list of how much money has been spent on maintenance, at each school?

Answer: Maintenance expenditure by school, based on expenditure information provided by the Department of Finance – Building Management and Works (BMW)

6) I refer to the Standards and Integrity Unit, please list the wait times for complaints to be resolved for the 2015-16 financial year and the 2014-15 financial year?

Answer: The table below relates to the number of allegations resolved in the 2014-15 financial year and 2015-16 financial year to date (as at 25 May 2016), which may have been received in previous years. These figures include allegations that were managed at both the central and local level.

In 2014-15, 775 allegations were resolved. The average time to resolve these allegations was 212 days (7.1 months).

In 2015-16, 717 allegations were resolved (as at 25 May 2016). The average time to resolve these allegations was 203 days (6.75 months).

Proportion of allegations resolved in months

|                       | 2014-15 | 2015-16 |
|-----------------------|---------|---------|
| Time taken to resolve | %       | %       |
| 0 – ≤ 3 months        | 38      | 37      |
| > 3 – ≤ 6 months      | 18      | 17      |
| > 6 – ≤ 9 months      | 15      | 14      |
| > 9 – ≤ 12 months     | 12      | 14      |
| > 12 – ≤ 18 months    | 9       | 12      |
| > 18 – ≤ 24 months    | 4       | 3       |
| ≥ 24 months           | 5       | 2       |

The timeframe to resolve a complaint is influenced by matters such as:

- multiple allegations arising from an event or events;
- police involvement and/or medical evidence regarding a respondent's fitness to participate in disciplinary investigations;
- availability of witnesses; and
- the procedural fairness timeframes embedded within the investigative process.

Further, there are three distinct stages in the process for resolving a complaint: assessment, investigation/resolution and outcome.

- The initial assessment and notification phase determines whether the complaint requires a disciplinary investigation or can be resolved by local resolution. Notifications are also made to external parties (such as the Corruption and Crime Commission, Public Sector Commission and/or Western Australian Police). The Department must await clearance from the relevant external party before proceeding with an investigation or local resolution.
- The investigation phase includes gathering evidence, interviewing witnesses and drafting the report.
- Following the investigation phase, there is an outcome phase where penalties are determined and respondents are given the opportunity to seek advice and provide a submission to the proposed findings and penalty. Any such submission is considered by the Director General before a final outcome/penalty is determined and communicated to the respondent.
