Questions listed for this sitting: -

5631. Ms A.S. Carles to the Minister for Housing

In relation to the Department of Housing subdivision development on Curedale Street, Beaconsfield:

- (a) can the Minister confirm that a cul-de-sac was installed in the subdivision instead of the originally planned through road due to concerns over shallow service lines at the site;
- (b) can the Minister confirm whether the Department of Housing made the decision to include a roundabout at the exit of the subdivision on Grosvenor Street;
- (c) can the Minister indicate if the roundabout is compliant with regulations requiring a buffer of 25 metres to residential drive ways; and
- (d) if the roundabout is not compliant with regulations, what action will be taken to rectify the non-compliance?

5632. Mr T.G. Stephens to the Minister for Mental Health

I refer to the Kimberley peoples' request to use the services of Dr Tracy Westerman of Indigenous Psyche Services (IPS) to provide intensive support to Kimberley communities in the prevention of suicide amongst their young people and following the tragic weekend suicide of yet another young male, and ask:

- (a) can the Minister advise how many suicides have occurred in the Kimberley since the State Government refused the original request to support Dr Westerman and IPS; and
- (b) as the current 'multitude' of service providers are not achieving the desired outcomes, particularly zero suicides in the Kimberley, will the Minister provide a response to this request of support for a service that has been proven to be effective in the past?
