NON-GOVERNMENT BUSINESS

1. The Premier

Hon Dr Steve Thomas to move —

That this House notes the arrogance that the Premier has been displaying to the people of Western Australia, including his contempt for valid questions and his dismissal of genuine issues of concern to the community, and calls on the Premier to —

- (a) desist from his arrogant and contemptuous treatment of the Western Australian community;
- (b) address the real and relevant issues Western Australians raise with an appropriate level of consideration; and
- (c) provide the “gold standard transparency” he promised before the 2017 State election.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' BUSINESS

1. Regional Economic Development

Hon Shelley Payne to move —

That this House —

Commends the McGowan Government for its strong commitment to our regions. In particular, acknowledging the work of the Regional Development Commissions and recognising the positive contributions the Regional Economic Development grant program has made to businesses in regional Western Australia, stimulating economic growth and diversifying regional economies.
