6471. Mr W.R. Marmion to the Minister for Local Government; Heritage; Culture and the Arts:

I refer to the Supreme Court judgement by Justice Tottle in which he concluded that the Minister did not have a material basis to make an order to suspend the Town of Cambridge Council under section 8.15C(2) of the Local Government Act and that the consequence of suspending the Council would have been legally unreasonable, and ask:

- (a) what advice did you receive, and from whom did you receive that advice, which lead you to serve a “show cause notice” on the Town of Cambridge;
- (b) will the Minister table that advice in Parliament;
- (c) did the Minister seek legal advice before instigating the “show cause notice”; and
- (d) what advice has the Minister since received from the department, subsequent to Justice Tottle’s judgement, in regard to the continuation of the current two year Inquiry into the Town of Cambridge and the outcome of the Supreme Court action by the Town of Cambridge?

6472. Mrs L.M. O’Malley to the Attorney General; Minister for Commerce:

Can the Attorney General please table the actuarial documents referred to in the then Attorney General’s brief ministerial statement of March 17, 2010?
