1. Performance of Government Ministers

Hon Nick Goiran: To move —

That this House:

- (a) expresses its grave concern about the sustained underperformance of senior Ministers within the McGowan Labor Government in 2021;
- (b) particularly notes:
 - (i) senior health officials have such little confidence in Minister Cook that they have not shared with him timely information about serious issues such as the bacterial contamination outbreak at Sir Charles Gairdner Hospital and the breach of SafeWA App data;
 - (ii) the calculated intervention of the Attorney General in the operations of the CCC that resulted in more than 1000 breaches of law has led to orders from the Supreme Court declaring the actions involving the Premier's own Department were invalid, while in the interim multiple promised law reforms have not occurred; and
 - (iii) the refusal of Ministers Ellery and McGurk to change their policy settings that continue to see victims forced to face their attacker at school or home will now be compounded by the extreme risk that there will not be a teacher for every classroom at the commencement of Term 1 in 2022, and
- (c) calls on the Premier to give serious consideration to changing the portfolio responsibilities of those Ministers with a demonstrated track record of underperformance and no confidence.
