Point of Order

Minister for Environment representing the Minister for Planning raised the following Point of Order —

Take in Hansard

Hon Nick Goiran raised the following Point of Order —

Take in Hansard

Deputy Chair's Ruling

The Deputy Chair ruled as follows —

The point of order relates to whether the COVID-19 Response and Economic Recovery Omnibus Bill 2020 is a Bill to which s 73 of the Constitution Act 1889 applies, requiring a referendum to have been held in addition to absolute majorities at the second and third readings of the Bill in both Houses.

Clause 85 of the Bill proposes the amendment of the Constitution Acts Amendment Act 1899 so as to enable Executive Council meetings to be conducted by remote communication, and purports to amend any Letters Patent relating to the office of Governor to the extent that there is any conflict.

The question is therefore whether such an amendment to the practice of the Executive Council either:

- (a) “expressly or impliedly provides for the abolition of or alteration in the office of Governor”:s 73(2)(a) of the Constitution Act 1889; or
- (b) “expressly or impliedly in any way affects” s. 50 of the Constitution Act 1889 (Office of Governor): s 73(2)(e) of the Constitution Act 1889.

The proposed amendment does not expressly abolish or alter the office of Governor. Whether a change to the Letters Patent in relation to the practices of the Executive Council to permit a virtual presence of members is an “implied alteration” or “expressly or impliedly in any way affects” the office of the Governor is a more difficult question and is a matter of law that is more properly for the courts to determine rather than the Parliament.

This is consistent with the traditional narrow interpretation of s 73 by presiding officers of the Legislative Council.

I therefore rule that this is not a Bill to which s 73 of the Constitution Act 1889 applies.
