NON-GOVERNMENT BUSINESS

---

1. Preparedness to combat Major Natural Disasters

Hon Martin Aldridge to move —

That this House —

- (a) notes the outlook by the Bureau of Meteorology for an above-average number of tropical cyclones in the 2022-23 cyclone season, and forecasts for hot and dry conditions for the southern bush fire season;
- (b) notes the failure of the Labor Government to complete and release numerous After Action Reviews into major natural disasters as we approach the high threat period; and
- (c) expresses concern in relation to our preparedness to combat new emergencies as well as to manage the continuing recovery from previous impacts in recent years.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' BUSINESS

---

1. Management of the State's Economy and Finances

Hon Pierre Yang to move —

That the Legislative Council notes —

- (a) the McGowan Labor Government's prudent and excellent economic and financial management, which is vastly different to the reckless and disastrous management of the previous Liberal National State Government; and
- (b) strongly encourages the McGowan Labor Government to continue its assiduous and meticulous management of Western Australia's economy and State finances.
