

ORDERLY: From the ■ list, your Honour, ■■■■■
■■■■■

MELIA, MS: Your Honour, I would ask that the charges not be read in relation to this matter.

HER HONOUR: No. All right. First appearance. I will take it an adjournment is being sought.

MELIA, MS: Yes. Well, your Honour, I am seeking to go through to a committal mention date in Perth if possible.

HER HONOUR: I see. All right. Yes.

MELIA, MS: Matters in terms of - - -

HER HONOUR: It doesn't work that way. If it has got to be - if it's Perth, it has got to be police committal mention. You're better off having committal mention here.

MELIA, MS: Right.

HER HONOUR: It's a better - otherwise, you're going to get 10 weeks for a police committal mention in Perth. I can't send it straight to committal in Perth.

MELIA, MS: No, no. There's no issue with that - - -

HER HONOUR: Yes. Yes.

MELIA, MS: - - - but there are some safety and security concerns around attending the Narrogin court - - -

HER HONOUR: Yes.

MELIA, MS: - - - so I would still ask that it go to Perth, even if it is a committal mention in 10 weeks with the police. I did know that there was police and State committal mentions, and I can say I'm completely unfamiliar with what the process is there.

HER HONOUR: Yes. All right.

MELIA, MS: Alternatively, simply for a mention in Perth and then it can be adjourned from there, if that is - - -

HER HONOUR: No, I can list it for police committal mention. I will do that for 10 weeks in Perth. 2 December, I will make it on the Wednesday. It's just that the Tuesday is a trial allocation date, it's in Perth.

MELIA, MS: Certainly.

HER HONOUR: So it's a better day, and it will be in the police committal list. Now, that's 10 weeks in the police committal list, and for 2 December, Perth.

MELIA, MS: Thank you, your Honour.

HER HONOUR: all right. And your bail will be extended on the same terms. [REDACTED], I take it you understand what is before the court?

ACCUSED: Yes.

HER HONOUR: All right. Thank you. Just have a seat at the back, so that we will get the notice to you for your bail extension notice, but it's Perth is your next date. All right.

ACCUSED: Yes.

MELIA, MS: Thank you, your Honour.

AT 11.59 AM THE MATTER WAS ADJOURNED UNTIL
