LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL Question On Notice

Thursday, 14 September 2023

1617. Hon Donna Faragher to the Leader of the House representing the Minister for Education

- (1) I refer to student to teacher ratios in Western Australian government schools, and I ask: For the years 2021, 2022, 2023 (current), what was the median student to teacher ratio in:
- (a) primary schools;
- (b) secondary schools;
- (c) curriculum and re-engagement in education (CARE) schools;
- (d) school of special education needs (SSEN);
- (e) language development centres; and
- (f) overall?
- (2) For each government school, will the Minister table a list of the individual student to teacher ratios in 2023 (current)?

Answer

(1) Median calculations are not used for the reporting of student-to-teacher ratios. Student-to-teacher ratios for selected school groups 2021 to 2023 as follows:

	Ratio 2021	Ratio 2022	Ratio 2023
(a) Primary schools ¹	16.2	16.0	16.1
(b) Secondary ¹	14.2	14.0	14.1
(c) Curriculum and re-engagement in education (CARE) schools ²	Not applicable	Not applicable	Not applicable
(d) Schools of special educational needs ³	0.5	0.4	0.4
(e) Language development centres	8.6	8.5	8.9
(f) Overall ⁴	14.6	14.5	14.5

¹ Distance education, district high schools, K-12 schools, and education support schools/centres are excluded from the responses to (a) and (b).

- The student-to-teacher ratios are based on Semester 1 (February) student and staff data as at the student census.
- · Kindergarten students are nominally reported as 0.6 FTE when calculating the student-to-teacher ratios.

² The public school sector does not have any schools that can be classified as CARE schools.

³ Two of the SSENs enrol students: Sensory, and Behaviour and Engagement. The ratio calculation does not take into account that the teachers at the SSENs provide extensive services to many students in their home schools.

⁴ The response to question (f) includes distance education schools, district high schools, K-12 schools, and education support schools/centres.

(2) See tabled paper.

Hon. Dr Tony Buti MLA Minister for Education

Public school student-to-teacher ratios 2023

NOTES:

Student-to-staff ratios for SSEN schools must be used with cauition because staff assigned to these facilities provide services to students not directly enrolled

The student-to-teacher ratios are based on Semester 1 (February) student and staff data as at the student census.

Kindergarten students are nominally reported as 0.6 FTE when calculating the student-to-teacher ratios.
